

Criteria & Evaluation

Nominees must meet the below requirements and will be scored on a scale of 1 to 5 for each area. The nominee with the highest overall score will earn the award. The committee may consider factors beyond the established criteria, such as a nominee's impact on the international real estate community or contributions to the profession's advancement.

- Experience (30%): Demonstrated experience in completing international real estate transactions or collaborating directly with international clients.
- Education (20%): Commitment to ongoing education and professional development in international real estate.
- Advocacy (15%): Active involvement in promoting and advocating for the CIPS designation and its value to the real estate industry.
- Leadership (15%): Demonstrated leadership in the global arena through involvement in local, state, or national REALTOR® associations or international organizations.
- Collaboration (10%): A commitment to fostering collaboration and building relationships with international partners and organizations.
- Commitment (10%): A dedication to helping others succeed in international real estate.

Texas REALTORS® reserves the right not to award the prize if no nominee meets the required standards.
